

INTERNATIONAL REFUGEE ASSISTANCE PROJECT

المشروع الدولي لمساعدة اللاجئين (آيراب)

The International Refugee Assistance Project (IRAP) is an organization that is not part of the U.S. government, the Turkish government, ICMC, IOM, or UNHCR. We cannot make decisions to grant refugee status, speed up cases, or resettle refugees. We do not assist with any Turkish legal issues. We provide free legal assistance related to refugee resettlement and U.S. immigration law. Unfortunately, we are unable to provide financial assistance, find or pay for housing, or find jobs.

IF YOU HAD AN INTERVIEW AT ICMC FOR RESETTLEMENT TO THE U.S. BUT RECEIVED A DENIAL LETTER, IRAP LAWYERS MAY BE ABLE TO HELP FOR FREE.

If you are a refugee who has been interviewed for resettlement by the U.S. government at ICMC but have since been denied, you may request that the decision be reviewed. This must be done within 90 days from the date of the denial. IRAP lawyers may be able to help you, free of charge, in drafting and submitting that request for review. If it has been more than 90 days since your denial, we may still be able to help.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO REQUEST IRAP ASSISTANCE, PLEASE EMAIL
info@refugeerights.org

In your email, please include a brief description of your case, basic biographical information about you and your family, and pictures of the US government's denial letter. At the start of your message, please write "this is a response to IRAP's leaflet"

An IRAP staffer will contact you to get more information about your case and see if we can assist. However, we have a large number of requests for assistance and it may take up to three weeks for us to contact you. IRAP attorneys can only assist a limited number of people in specific circumstances. Sending an email does not guarantee that you will receive legal assistance.

If the 90-day deadline is approaching, please do not wait to submit the request for review. If you submit your appeal after the deadline, your request for review may be rejected for being late.